Thank You

Dear All, last Saturday's Induction was very special and I want to thank you all for making it so. It was a great team effort. From those who cleaned beforehand, to those who did the flowers, to everyone who organised or provided food for the bring and share, to those who served drinks and those who washed up, also to those involved in the technology and music and to the rest of you who worked away quietly, I really appreciate everything you did. The other thing I want to mention is how welcoming you were as a church to all our visitors. especially those from Chesterfield, I know this was much appreciated.

Thank you once again, Steve a varied route across undulating countryside, taking in elements of the Hergest Croft estate. There is a steady climb onto Hergest Ridge itself, from where there are stunning views across to the Radnor Hills, Black Mountains and the Malvern Hills. Although the walk is on clear paths and occasional quiet lanes, stout footwear is required as there maybe the odd muddy section.

Meet in the church car park at 9.30am prompt. Bring a pack lunch.
