A very warm welcome to everyone visiting our church today. It's really great that you're here this morning and we hope that you enjoy today's service. We would love to get to know you better, so please join us after the service for tea and coffee and if you are able, join us for Afternoon tea for new Church attenders

Today at 4.00pm.

Come along for afternoon tea, chat with our Minister Steve Ansell and some of the Deacons, find out more about Hereford Baptist Church and how you can be more involved. All ages welcome. We'd love to get to know you better.

Please let Dorothy Coleman know if you'd like to come along (so that we can make sure we have enough cake!)

Thought for the Week

“And through a dark night of the soul, I came to realise that salvation happens through a mysterious, undefinable, relational interaction with Jesus in which we become one with him. I realised Christian conversion worked more like falling in love than understanding a series of concepts and ideas. This is not to say that there are no true ideas, it is only to say there is something else”

Donald Miller, Searching for God Knows What

For Your Prayers

Birmingham Uni is holding its outreach event this week, 28th Jan til Feb 1st, with speaker Peter Dray. Pray for hearts and minds to be ready to respond and for the CU students to be brave in inviting as many as possible to hear the Good News. Think especially of Tim B (4th year) and Ellie H(1st year)..

Niels has moved to Ross Community Hospital. Continue to pray for him and Carole as this chapter of life is tiring and frustrating. May they know God's blessing in spite of circumstances.

Continue to pray for Pam, Heather and Mark all having treatment for cancer.

Give thanks Win has settled well into Coldwells House.

Tanzania

As many of you are aware, HBC helps support 6 schools in Tanzania so that children in extreme poverty can have something to eat each day in school. I have 3 colleagues who are going to visit the schools on the 8th February. Here is a message from one Tanzanian Head teacher - 'My dear ladies and gentlemen we send you greetings. Thank you so much for your donations in the past. We really appreciate for the help which you have given us. We wish you a happy new year 2019.'

The money which we gave last time will run out around 25th January. If you would like to contribute financially please use the envelopes on the entrance hall table and either put it back in the bowl or pass on to Ruth Price by Sunday 3rd February. Please pray that the next harvest will be a good one and that we will move forward with some sustainable solutions. Thank you so much for all your love and support in being part of this.

Men's Retreat Day
