Thought for the Week

“To be a Christian means to forgive the inexcusable because God has forgiven the inexcusable in you.” - C.S. Lewis

A very warm welcome to everyone visiting our church today. It's really great that you're here this morning and we hope that you enjoy today's service. We would love to get to know you better, so please join us after the service for tea and coffee and if you are able.

Today's Reading

Colossians 3:12-17 New International Version (NIV)

¹²Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. ¹³Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.¹⁴ And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

¹⁵Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. ¹⁶Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. ¹⁷And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

For Your Prayers

Cathy is off to Thailand tomorrow for 2w. May she be blessed as she blesses others and may God be glorified. Pray for God's protection from all Satan's schemes: travel, health, distractions...

Continue to pray for Steve's house move to progress.

Pray for us all to meditate on last Sunday's and today's sermons and to desire to be obedient to Christ. May we ask for and recognise His strength in order to do so. Share the principles in all areas of our lives and encourage one another to enter full freedom in Christ.

Pray for Rosie W to be able to eat well and stabilise her weight ready for surgery in May. She is currently underweight.

Give thanks Sarah's eye surgery as resulted in Sarah being able to drive again.
