

A very warm welcome to everyone visiting our church today. It's great that you're here this morning, we hope that you enjoy today's service. We would love to get to know you better, so please join us after the service for tea and coffee if you are able.

Sunday 28th April 2019

10.30am - Morning Service

5.30pm - Rose Garden Church

For Your Prayers

Pray for the persecuted church to be strong in the Lord and to continue to stand. May we support them in prayer and in other ways as able. May we be willing to stand for our faith in the UK. Remember those who mourn in Sri Lanka.

Let us rejoice in the life of Morag Clark and may the thanksgiving service on May 4th bring glory to God. This would be Morag's desire. Remember her nephew Robin Scott and wife, Liz and their family.

Pray for students taking exams to give of their best and to trust in God to supply the grades they need for his good purposes for them. May they know Jesus is ALWAYS with them - even when parents/ technology aren't.

Pray for a smooth move for Steve and Sarah into their new home. May they know God's blessing.

Today's Reading

2 Timothy 1:6-10 (NIV)

Appeal for Loyalty to Paul and the Gospel

6 For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands. 7 For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self-discipline. 8 So do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner. Rather, join with me in suffering for the gospel, by the power of God. 9 He has saved us and called us to a holy life—not because of anything we have done but because of his own purpose and grace. This grace was given us in Christ Jesus before the beginning of time, 10 but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Saviour, Christ Jesus, who has destroyed death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

Thought for the Week

No one has yet discovered the word Jesus ought to have said, none suggested the better word he might have said... He is full of surprises, but they are all the surprises of perfection.

Thanksgiving Service for Morag Clarke

The Thanksgiving Service for the life of Morag Clark is taking place next Saturday, 4th March at 11.45am.

Many of our church family will want to be present.

Parking Next Saturday

If you have access to the underground car park, please use that facility as that will free spaces for other attenders.

If you are not attending the service, please do not use the church car park next Saturday because we are expecting visitors from different parts of the country for this occasion.

Parking spaces will be cordoned off for members of Morag's family who will be attending the committal at the Crematorium prior to the Thanksgiving Service, please respect this and leave these spaces free.

Thank you for your co-operation.

Easter Eggs

Thank you to everyone who donated Easter Eggs for Women's aid, we had enough to give one to every person in a refuge in Hereford and the team working with them, all the extra eggs were donated to the food bank.
