Thought for the week

If there be anything I know, anything that I am quite assured of beyond all question, it is that praying breath is never spent in vain. Charles Spurgeon

For your prayers

It is a chesty time of year so remember those vulnerable in this area. May infections be few and far apart with a speedy response to treatment if this is required. Think of Niels W, Allan Y, Alan G, Denise H, Neil H, June M, Mo P..... Brenda is less mobile having injured her leg. Pray for a speedy recovery. Remember Sarah W and family as Sarah's father is seriously unwell.

Today's Reading

Romans 8:31-39 NIV

More Than Conquerors

<sup>31</sup> What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? <sup>32</sup> He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? <sup>33</sup> Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. <sup>34</sup> Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. <sup>35</sup> Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? <sup>36</sup> As it is written:

“For your sake we face death all day long;
we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”

<sup>37</sup> No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. <sup>38</sup> For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, <sup>39</sup> neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Lamentations 3:19-24 NIV

<sup>19</sup> I remember my affliction and my wandering, the bitterness and the gall.

<sup>20</sup> I well remember them,
and my soul is downcast within me.

<sup>21</sup> Yet this I call to mind
and therefore I have hope:

<sup>22</sup> Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed,
for his compassions never fail.

<sup>23</sup> They are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.

<sup>24</sup> I say to myself, “The Lord is my portion;
therefore I will wait for him.”

Baptisms

You are invited to join us for a baptism service on Sunday 17th November 2019. Please pray for the four young adults being baptised on that morning.

Remembrance

Wednesday Club have donated the flowers in Church today in memory of past members.

Night Shift

This weekend marks the 17th Anniversary of Night Shift.

We have experienced God's protection and His favour during these years

We have been greatly blessed as we have sought to show God's love and care to an amazing number of people.

Our small team have shown a loyal commitment and we thank God for each one of them.

Thank you to those who pray for our team each week and for your interest.

We continue to look to God as we go forward into the 18th year!

Hiking Group

A church hike is planned for Saturday 16th November. The hike, which is roughly 7 miles long, will start at Storrige, near Malvern, and pass through undulating, pleasant countryside providing views over Herefordshire and across to the Malverns. The route will be mainly on field paths, woodland tracks and quiet lanes. The walk involves some gentle climbs but generally easy walking. Bearing in mind how much rain we've had recently the ground is likely to be muddy in places, so please bring sturdy footwear. We will meet at the church at 9.30. Please bring a packed lunch.

Please contact David Pritchard for more details. Home 01432 882216, mobile 07809 132962
